24. 다음 글의 요지로 가장 적절한 것은?

In our efforts to be the good child, the uncomplaining employee, or the cooperative patient, many of us fall into the trap of trying to please people by going along with whatever they want us to do. At times, we lose track of our own boundaries and needs, and the cost of this could be our life, both symbolically and literally. When we are unable to set healthy limits, it causes distress in our relationships. But when we learn to say no to what we don't feel like doing in order to say yes to our true self, we feel empowered, and our relationships with others improve. So don't be afraid to say no. Try to catch yourself in the moment and use your true voice to say what you really want to say.

- ② 항상 타인의 입장을 먼저 고려해야 한다.
- ③ 자신이 원하지 않는 일은 거절할 필요가 있다.
- ④ 자신의 의견을 고집하면 대인 관계가 악화된다.
- ⑤ 제안을 승낙하기 전에는 그 의도를 파악해야 한다.

25. 다음 글의 주제로 가장 적절한 것은?

Some people punish themselves when they are under time pressure. They delete all the games on their PC, they stop going for walks, and they don't spend time with their friends. They then have less pleasure in life and less balance — and their work performance actually declines. Break out of this pattern by paying more attention to relaxation and getting more involved in living when you are under pressure. Define clear time periods for this: half an hour for a walk, ten minutes to play a game on your PC, and so on. Your mind will become more creative during the break, and you will become mentally fitter. Free time without feelings of guilt will give you the strength to do high-quality work in the remaining time. Furthermore, a certain amount of recreation reduces the chances of developing stress-related disorders.

- ① 컴퓨터 게임 중독의 심각성
- ② 직장 내 대인 관계의 중요성
- ③ 집중력과 학습 능력 간의 관계
- ④ 죄책감이 정신 건강에 미치는 영향
- ⑤ 시간적 압박하에서의 휴식의 필요성

26. 다음 글의 제목으로 가장 적절한 것은?

Large animals are actually less dangerous to hikers than smaller ones. Common sense tells us that we should avoid tigers, bears, and other large threatening animals. But smaller animals are actually more threatening than bigger animals. To overcome disadvantages of their size, small animals have developed useful weapons such as poison to protect themselves in the wild. Each year, only a few people are attacked by tigers or bears, and most of these incidents are caused by the people themselves. However, more people are killed by bites from small poisonous snakes than by these large animals. Even more people lose their lives from allergic reactions to common bee stings. For these reasons, hikers should be careful about small dangerous creatures.

I hope you remember our discussion last Monday about the servicing of the washing machine ① supplied to us three months ago. I regret to say the machine is no longer working. As we agreed during the meeting, please send a service engineer as soon as possible to repair it. The product warranty says ② that you provide spare parts and materials for free, but charge for the engineer's labor. This sounds ③ unfair. I believe the machine's failure is caused by a manufacturing defect. Initially, it made a lot of noise, and later, it stopped ④ to operate entirely. As it is wholly the company's responsibility to correct the defect, I hope you will not make us ⑤ pay for the labor component of its repair.

[33~35] 다음 빈칸에 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

33. In all cultures in which eye-gaze behavior has been studied, science confirms that those who are dominant have more _____ in using it. In essence, these individuals are entitled to look wherever they want. However, subordinates are more restricted in where they can look and when. Humility dictates that in the presence of royalty, as in church, heads are bowed. As a general rule, dominants tend to ignore subordinates visually while subordinates tend to gaze at dominant individuals at a distance. In other words, higher-status individuals can be indifferent while lower-status persons are required to be attentive with their gaze. The king is free to look at anyone he wants, but all subjects face the king, even as they back out of a room. [3점]

* be entitled to: (~할) 권한이 있다

- ① anxiety ② conflict ③ freedom
- ④ reluctance ⑤ responsibility

34. The importance of science has led people to think that 'objectivity' is the best way to see the world — to see the facts without any feelings. However, from a human point of view, objectivity is just another attitude. It is an interpretation that deliberately ignores our feelings. It is very useful to ensure that scientific measurements are taken accurately and so on, but as far as life is concerned, it is a bit like turning the color off on your TV so that you see everything in black and white and then saying that is more truthful. It is not more truthful; it is just a filter that reduces the _____. When you turn down the feelings, you also turn down the possibility of enjoyment. [3점]

- ① richness of life
- ② brutality of humans
- ③ size of the TV screen
- ④ incorrectness of a theory
- ⑤ criticism of scientific findings

35. Sometimes all the outcomes customers are trying to achieve in one area have a negative effect on other outcomes. This is very common when companies are busy listening to the 'voice of the customer.' Traveling salespeople, for example, may say they want a smaller cell phone, but they may not have thought about how hard that tiny phone will be to use. Carpenters may request a lightweight circular saw without thinking about the fact that it will no longer have the power to get through some of the more difficult jobs. When customers make requests for new product features, they are usually focused on solving just one problem and are not thinking of how their requested solution will _____. In this situation, customers request new features but reject the resulting product when they realize the ramifications of their suggestions — the added feature turns out to be worthless because of the problems it causes. [3점]

* ramification: 파생된 문제

- ① impact other product or service functions
- ② delay the introduction of innovative products
- ③ induce other customers to make additional requests
- ④ bring about excessive competition among companies
- ⑤ discourage companies from listening to customers' voices

36. 다음 글의 빈칸 (A), (B)에 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것은?

Self-monitoring refers to how much people try to control the way they present themselves to others. Those who have high self-monitoring want their behavior to be socially acceptable. They adjust themselves to any social signal that indicates appropriate or inappropriate behavior. ____ (A) ____, if they are in a meeting and see others making suggestions, they will try to make suggestions as well. They are also good at managing what others think about them. ____ (B) ____, those who have low self-monitoring are not very sensitive to signals indicating socially acceptable behavior. They are not too concerned about behaving the right way in a specific context. For example, if they are in a meeting with the president of an organization, they may act bored. They are not deeply concerned about how others see them.

Life can be like riding a roller coaster. There are ups and downs, fast and slow parts, bumps and shaky parts, and even times when you're upside down. ① You can't control which way the track (or in this case, life events) will take you. ② When you're at the bottom, you can see only what's right in front of you, but when you get to the top, you can see the whole picture a lot better. ③ When you're starting out, accept how you feel and try to enjoy the ride. ④ When you design an amusement park for children, you should carefully consider the location of the roller coaster. ⑤ When it's over, you'll see that it was really cool — even if you couldn't see that when you first started.

When Tom had helped the blind man to cross the street, he realized he had left his book bag on the bus stop bench.

As Tom was waiting for a bus, he noticed a blind man trying to cross the street. (①) The traffic was heavy, and it was likely the blind man would get hit, as he was not crossing at a crosswalk. (②) Tom looked around and saw there was no one else to help, so he asked the blind man if he would like help crossing the street. (③) The blind man readily said yes, then latched onto Tom's arm, and they began their walk across the street avoiding speeding cars. (④) When Tom looked back at the bus stop bench, he saw another man sitting next to his book bag. (⑤) And when Tom got to the bus stop bench, the man said, "I saw what you were doing, so I decided to sit here and watch your book bag."

I had volunteered for the charity picnic, and I needed to be there on time. Ms. Green, the charity president, was preparing this monthly event by herself. Lily complained, "Mom, I don't feel like going today. We've volunteered more than five times this year." She was eating slower than usual. I urged her, "Lily, don't you remember we promised to help Ms. Green last month? Go and get dressed." I stood by the door and pointed at my watch. She slowly pulled on her sweater and said, "I still don't feel like going." I started losing my patience. I responded, "Don't you know Ms. Green has a lot of work to do for the picnic today? It's time you started thinking about other people." My voice was growing louder with each sentence.
